City Council met in regular session at 5:00 p.m. on March 28, 2017 at the Council Rooms Sac City Municipal Building with the following members present: Bill Brenny, Teresa Bruening, Bruce Perry, Larry Mahler, Tom McGinty, with Scott Bundt, Mayor presiding.

There were no conflicts of interest noted from the council.

A motion was made by Teresa Bruening and seconded by Bill Brenny to approve the following consent agenda items:

Approval of the agenda.

Approval of the minutes of the March 14, 2017 council meeting.

Approving parade permits requested by Chamber-Main Street for the Kiddie Parade and Chautauqua Days Parade on July 1, 2017.

Approval of receipts and disbursements for February 2017.

Mark Druivenga addressed the council questioning the removal of snow by the city at his residence. The council took no action on this item.

The Mayor announced that this was the time for the hearing as requested by Ray Von Ahn to address his nuisance abatement order on trailers. Mr. Von Ahn informed the council he didn't request a hearing; so the council took no action.

Kim Nelsen, Sac City librarian, presented the library's annual report.

Now was the time and place set for the opening and possible award of fuel bids for city operations. The following bids were received.

Al's Corner	bid margin	.14/unleaded & #1 and #2 diesel
Star Energy	bid margin	.145/unleaded & #1 and #2 diesel

It was moved by Bruce Perry and seconded by Teresa Bruening to award the bid to low bid Al's Corner. Roll call was taken and vote was as follows:
Ayes: Larry Mahler, Tom McGinty, Bill Brenny, Teresa Bruening, Bruce Perry.
Nays: None.

Committee and department reports were given.

The council forum was held. The council discussed the condition of the North 5th Street bridge. Chamber-Main Street is exploring the possibility of opening the building at the Freedom Rock location.

It was moved by Tom McGinty and seconded by Larry Mahler to adjourn.
Time: 5:56 p.m.
Ayes: All.
Nays: None.
